PARIS, BOURBON COUNTY, KENTUCKY, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 27, 1917.

Condensed War News.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—Robert Allen Haden, an American Presbyterian missionary, stationed at Pao Chow, China, perished when the French liner Athos was destroyed by a submarine 210 miles east of Malta on February 17.

Consul Kehlenger at Malta cabled a report of Haden's death to the State Department and said that the missionary's address was given in care of the Presbyterian Mission Board at Nashville, Tenn.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 26.—Following a discussion of a national referendum on war by delegates attending a conference called by the American Peace Society, a vote was taken in which forty favored a referendum, fifteen opposed it and seven declined to vote. President Kirchwey, of the society, declared the idea was impracticable, while another delegate referred to President Wilson as "the greatest pacifist of all" and asked him to stand by him.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 26.—The latest reports from London and Paris show that additional vessels of an aggregate tonnage of more than 21,000 have been sent to the bottom by submarines or mines. The vessels sunk were four British steamers and a trawler, one Russian, one Swedish, one Dutch and one Norwegian steamer. The Swedish steamer had several Americans on board. All of them and the remainder of the crew were rescued.

CITY UNION OF YOUNG PEOPLES' SOCIETIES.

There was a large attendance at the meeting of the City Union of Young Peoples' Societies of Paris, held at the Christian church, at three o'clock, Sunday afternoon. Mr. Dennis V. Snapp, President of the organization, presided. The following interesting program was rendered:

Hymn—"God Bless Our Native Land," Congregation.

Business Session.—Mr. Dennis V. Snapp presiding.

Hymn—"America," Congregation.

Devotional—Miss Sara Power, leader.

Duet—"Somebody Knows," Mrs. James Grinnell, Jr., and Mrs. S. T. Chipley.

Talk—"The American Flag," Mr. Robert Rose.

Talk—"A Call to Arms," Mr. Collier Dawes.

Solo—"Plains of Peace," Mr. Harry Kerslake.

Talk—"Loyalty," Mr. J. T. Tucker.

Closing Hymn—"Blest Be the Tie That Binds," Congregation.

At this meeting the City Union was made an independent organization financially, instead of depending on each individual organization. An offering will be made each quarter to cover expenses. Miss Sara Power was appointed to fill the vacancy on the Program Committee caused by the resignation of Mrs. Howard B. Carr, who will soon move to another city.

The large auditorium of the church was most effectively and artistically decorated, large and small American flags being used in the decorative scheme with a most pleasing effect.

REBEKAH LODGE TO HOLD BOX SUPPER.

The ladies of Paris Rebekah Lodge No. 7, will hold a Box Supper at the Odd Fellows' building on Thursday night at eight o'clock. Prizes will be awarded to the most popular young lady receiving the largest number of votes on that night, and also to the man who is voted as the best member of the fraternity.

All the ladies who attended are expected to contribute a package which will be sold to the highest bidder. Everybody is invited to attend. A splendid musical program will be rendered, consisting of vocal and instrumental selections. The committee on arrangements is composed of Miss Mattie Neal, Mrs. Dora Scott and Mrs. A. R. Dennison.

ELECTRICAL STORMS.

Central Kentucky in the past few days has furnished the stage setting for brilliant electrical displays, accompanied by thunder, doing considerable damage in many places, but none in Bourbon county so far as known. During one of these electrical storms Friday evening lightning struck a tobacco barn on the farm of Mr. Clinton Woodford, near Nicholasville, burning it to the ground. The farming implements and $750 worth of hemp stored in the barn were totally destroyed. Partly insured.

BUYS SMALL FARM.

Mr. Clifton Dalzell, who, with Mr. Henry Claywood, recently purchased the Bruce Miller farm, on the Georgetown pike, near Paris, purchased of Mr. Caywood last week forty-four acres of the land, adjoining the Miller farm and the lands of Mr. C. E. Cleveland, at a private price.

GROOMING FOR CITY AND COUNTY RACES.

The races for the various city and county offices are beginning to fill, the city furnishing a large number of candidates, while the county races are as yet lacking sufficient entries to fill. The candidates who have so far announced have begun their active campaign work among the voters, while the primary election is yet some months away. Judging from the number of jockeys already in the saddle, and some using the whip even at this outset of the race, there will be an interesting time in prospect for the dear people from now until the close of the polls in the primary election in August.

With possibly others yet to hear from the race for Jailor has started out with the following contestants, all good and true Democrats, who are anxious to have the care of the city's and county's criminal classes for a term of years: Patrolman George W. Judy, a former incumbent of the office; Mr. Thomas Taul; Mr. John H. Doty; Mr. Walker Kiser; Mr. J. W. Hart; Mr. C. T. Masterson (moved to Spencer county); Mr. W. O. Butler, and Patrolman John W. King.

For County Assessor, with possibly another entry soon, the following are taking the hurdles, and running with the wind: Mr. Walter Clark, of Paris, with Mr. John J. Redmon, of the North Middletown precinct, a deputy; Mr. George D. Speakes, of Paris, with Mr. Lee R. Craven, of the Little Rock vicinity, as deputy.

For County Attorney, Mr. David D. Cline, a prominent member of the Paris bar, is so far the only announced candidate, but it is probable there will be another entry at an early date.

In the Sheriff's race the ticket will be headed by Mr. Wm. G. McClintock, with Mr. O. L. Marshall and Robert Gilkey as deputies. Some pressure is being exerted on several prominent citizens to announce, and it is likely that they will become factors soon in this race.

County Judge C. A. McMillan will be a candidate to succeed himself, and it is hinted that another prominent member of the Bourbon bar will oppose him, at least "so they say." Popular "Bally" Paton as yet has no announced opposition for County Clerk, and may not have. No opposition to Representative Reuben Hutchcraft has announced nor has Mr. Hutchcraft indicated a desire to succeed himself.

In the Mayoralty race Mr. Jas. H. Moreland, a member of the Paris police force, and Police Judge E. B. January are the only runners so far being groomed for the race, though a new entry in the person of Mr. Wm. O. Hinton, may be brought into the lists. He has been called, but still has the matter under consideration.

For Chief of Police the contestants will be, as so far announced, the present occupant, Fred Link, and Ben Spears, private policeman. There may yet be another entry in this race.

For the office of Police Judge five good men are entered, Messrs. P. A. Thompson, Claude F. Redmon, Ernest Martin, Harry L. Mitchell and J. W. Brown.

The lists are still open and waiting, and the entrance of new material in several of the races will inject a new interest and an element of uncertainty to form players.

LUNATIC ARRESTED.

Chief of Police Fred Link, while coming down Main street Sunday night, noticed a man near The Fair Store, whose actions appeared queer or suspicious to him. Upon questioning him and getting only evasive answers, Chief Link took the man in custody. A short while after this he was advised by long distance message from Lexington that Sam Sorrel, an inmate of the State Hospital for the Insane at Lexington, had escaped. The man arrested by the Chief proved to be Sorrel, who bore on his clothing the ward number 17 of the Hospital. Sorrel was sent to the Hospital yesterday in care of an attendant. He is a native of Menifee county.

CAN'T YOU TEACH ONE?

Kentucky has three years in which to remove her illiteracy if the slogan—"No illiteracy in Kentucky in 1920"—is realized. If other counties in the State worked like Clay, Leslie and Cumberland, for instance, there would be no illiteracy in the State in 1918. In these three counties 1,967 persons learned to read and write in 1916. In a number of counties as many as one hundred were taught, and in some fifty men and women learned to read and write. During this winter many citizens are busy teaching. Some editors are teaching, some bankers, some lawyers and judges, some women and even some children are teaching some one to read and write. One woman in Versailles has taught seven in her own home. A little girl in Winchester has taught five colored illiterates. The president of the Illiteracy Commission, Mrs. Stewart, while directing the State-wide educational campaign against illiteracy, with its heavy duties, has taught one, herself, since November. The Federation of Women's Clubs plans to teach ten thousand this winter and spring by each teaching one.

This is Kentucky's great work. It originated in Kentucky, and the eradication of illiteracy will be to the lasting glory of Kentucky. But, better than this, it will open up to men and women the great world of books. Has any one in Paris yet taught one in Kentucky's great campaign against illiteracy? Do you remember in John Fox's book, "The Trail of the Lone-some Pine," the wonderful enthusiasm "June" displayed when she began to get "faddicated" and learned the wondrous secrets of the world of books? You can open the sealed door into this fairy land for some one in Paris by enabling them to get a start toward "readin', ritin' en 'rithmetic."

So far as is known at present there are no illiterates in Paris or Bourbon county, but at the same time there may be some who are grumping in vain for an education that will enable them to participate in the battle of life on an equal footing with others. Their limited means may deter them from "reading themselves." Some are helped by the Garth Fund and the Hamilton Fund, many are helped by the public schools, yet there may be some others, shrinking souls, who are kept back in the rear by their inability to provide financial ways toward an education.

Naval Efficiency.

The ticklish situation that has developed between this country and Germany is causing each day a closer scrutiny of the question of naval power.

The opposition to an increase of the navy would be greatly diminished, could our people feel confident that the money was economically spent. If the taxpayer is convinced that a fixed proportion of navy money is always wasted, he gives up the additional sum for a new battleship with very ill grace.

It is generally admitted that the United States has too many navy yards, that duplicate plants are being maintained where a smaller number would do the work at far less cost. Yet if a man should get up in Congress and move to abolish a yard in any given section, that proposal would be bitterly fought by every Congressman from that section. No one seems to look at the thing from a business point of view.

Apparently the objection to abolishing useless navy yards is not so much the local demand for protection against a foreign foe. It is the feeling on the part of politicians that the business community that depends on the navy yards to sell supplies would resent the closing up of a yard. Butchers and grocers would have to go out of business if a yard were closed. That would mean the removal of families, the local Congressman would be blamed, and he would lose votes.

The people are asking the question with force and emphasis, whether navy yards, coaling stations, and other equipment are maintained for the sake of an efficient fighting force or to help politicians get re-elected. During the past 14 years the United States spent $1,656,000,000 on its navy. Germany spent during the same period but $1,137,000,000. Germany has by far the stronger fighting force afloat, or it had until the fortunes of war depleted its fleet.

The people are getting more and more interested in navy efficiency. It will be a live issue at elections, which Congressmen should realize.

Public Health Work.

In a powerful address delivered before the American Public Health Association Convention at Rochester, N. Y., their president, Dr. W. T. Sedwick, arraigned the United States for dirt streets, unclean milk supplies, infant mortality, and prevalence of typhoid fever. One of Dr. Sedwick's charges was that the health boards are too often loaded up with "political refugees, political doctors and incompetent laymen."

There is a tendency to look at public boards of health, in charge of these problems, as mere old maidish pursuers of imaginary microbes. If the average citizen can dodge a health regulation he feels he is so much to the good.

Many towns persistently ignore plain menaces to health for many years. In one place known to the writer, there has been for many years a dam backing up a small stream for several miles, in a way to create large areas of stagnant water near a village. This water was a mosquito breeder and injured the attractiveness of the town. It must have been a disease carrier, provocative of malarial, tubercular and other troubles.

Yet because the letting off of this water would have caused some slight inconvenience to an industry employing a very few men, it was never possible to drain these swamps and meadows. A board of health is not likely to amount to much unless one or more competent physicians are included on it. They should not be asked to perform this service for love only. It is an effort that should enlist the energies of the best citizens of the place. If leading men would all take turn for a short term, the service would not be hard on any one, and a knowledge of health problems would become much more widely diffused.

MAMMA! DON'T YOU SEE YOUR CHILD IS SICK, CONSTIPATED

Look at Tongue! Move Poisons From Liver and Bowels at Once.

Mother! Your child isn't naturally cross and peevish. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign his little stomach, liver and bowels need a cleansing at once.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, remember, a gentle liver and bowel cleansing should always be the first treatment given.

Nothing equals "California Syrup of Figs" for children's ills; give a teaspoonful, and in a few hours all the foul waste, sour bile and fermenting food which is clogged in the bowels passes out of the system, and you have a well and playful child again. All children love this harmless, delicious "fruit laxative," and it never fails to effect a good "inside" cleansing. Directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are plain, printed on the bottle.

Keep it handy in your home. A little to-day saves a sick child to-morrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then look to see that it is made by the California Fig Syrup Co." (adv)

VICTORY FOR USERS OF NEWSPRINT PAPER

News print paper manufacturers facing criminal prosecution in the United States Courts for alleged combination in restraint of trade, proposed to the Federal Trade Commission that it fix a reasonable price for the output of the principal plants of the United States and Canada from March 1, 1917, to September 1, 1917. The commission announced it had the proposal under consideration and would reply immediately. It is generally believed the answer will be an acceptance.

The action of the manufacturers gives a signal victory to American newspaper publishers, who, in the face of advancing paper prices, have seen nothing ahead but ruin for many of their number. If the proposal is accepted, officials say, it will mark an expansion of the functions of the Government which, in arbitrating the differences between two industries, opens a wide field of possibilities for the future.

Although nothing has been said concerning the continuance of grand jury proceedings in New York, it is well understood the manufacturers' move was predicted on the assumption that there would be no criminal prosecutions.

CONSTIPATION MAKES YOU DULL

That draggy, listless, oppressed feeling generally results from constipation. The intestines are clogged and the blood becomes poisoned. Relieve this condition at once with Dr. King's New Life Pills; this gentle, non-gripping laxative is quickly effective. A dose at bedtime will make you feel brighter in the morning. Get a bottle to-day at your Druggist, 25c.

Real Chinese Dragon.

That dragon monster of which the Chinese are so fond did actually exist, according to a Shanghai correspondent of the London Times. It is known that reptiles existed very similar to the favorite picture dragons, and there is reason to believe that some measured as long as 60 feet.

SEVERE COLD QUICKLY CURED.

"On December first I had a very severe cold or attack of the grip as it may be, and was nearly down sick in bed," writes O. J. Metcalf, Waterbury, Mo. "I bought two bottles of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it was only a few days until I was completely restored to health. I firmly believe that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is one of the very best medicines and I will know what to do when I have another cold." Obtainable everywhere. (Feb-adv)

PREVENTION OF COLDS.

(Indianapolis News.)

There are a great many folks in the country to-day with colds and others with gripe, tonsillitis and kindred diseases, who, had they exercised a modicum of preventive caution, need not have suffered with the discomfort and absence from business. There are few diseases so insidious in their attack as colds and their consequences. We tramp around on a wet day, sans overshoes, and the soles of our shoes become thoroughly soaked. If the moisture does not reach our feet the feet at least feel the effect of the clammy sole. We go home and sit around in our damp shoes. The next morning we begin to sniffle and we are ready for the cure, instead of the preventive. Yet a hot foot bath the night before might have sent the blood coursing through our feet and ward off the attack. We sit in a warm house in the evening and on Sunday, if we have need for something in the garage or on the back porch we rush out without sufficient clothing or a hat. The cold air gives the system a shock and if our resistance is low, we very likely have given a cold a good start. We bustle around for an hour or so doing various errands and get the blood flowing rapidly to the remotest parts of the body. Then we stand on a street corner for half an hour waiting for a street car and a chill is the result. It may be stopped by a good hot bath when we get into the house, eat the evening meal, feel fairly well—and the cold starts to work.

By taking a moment's thought and care we could avoid many cases of cold and its resultant ills. The extra time it takes to put on a hat, a coat or change damp hosiery is insignificant compared to the days of discomfort we must suffer to pay for the moment's indiscretion. Often, too, we imagine that we can cure our ills by homely remedies. Frequently a call on the doctor when a cold is in its incipency will mean a quicker cure than is possible by resorting to home treatment.

Doctors tell us that many serious diseases may result from a neglected cold or a throat affection. Among these are rheumatism, tuberculosis, heart trouble and Bright's disease. The medical profession more and more is becoming interested in preventive measures. We can help the movement along by using common sense, by remembering that we can not violate a law of health unless we pay the penalty. Get plenty of fresh air. Wear more clothing outside the house and office than we do inside. Do not stand for long in a draft. Sleep with the bedroom window up, but in doing so be sure that there is no draft to smite the back of the neck while you sleep.

HARRY LINVILLE

POMERENE STANDS BY WILSON. WILSON TO TAKE OATH OF OFFICE MARCH 4.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—"Geore Washington had his Tories; Abraham Lincoln had his copperheads, and Woodrow Wilson—well, he has the pacifists and some foreigners," said Senator Pomerene in a speech before a joint meeting of the Daughters of the American Revolution and the District of Columbia Society of the Sons of the Revolution, held in Memorial Continental Hall.

President Wilson made a brief address in presenting to Harold F. Stose, a local schoolboy, a medal awarded by the G. A. R. for a prize essay. Members of the Cabinet, M. Jusserand, the French Ambassador, and other notables were present.

Senator Pomerene traced the analogy between the foreign situation which existed while President Washington was in office and immediately after his retirement, with the situation that faces President Wilson, Thursday.

War with France was averted more than a century ago by the firm position taken by this Government, he said, and "so we hope that the firmness of our Chief Executive may give the German Imperial Government cause to reconsider."

WASHINGTON, February 26.—It was definitely decided to-day that President Wilson will take his new oath of office in private in the White House on Sunday, March 4. Whether he will take it again at the public ceremony on March 5, or merely make that the occasion for delivering his inaugural address has not been decided.

A State Department ruling to-day made it clear that the President may wait and not take any oath at all until March 5, if he chooses to do so. It was officially announced that the President has decided to call an extra session of the Senate for March 5 to consider nominations.

THE NEWS PRINT FAMINE

There is talk of improving prospects for more reasonable prices and supplies of news print paper. It is to be hoped that there may be something more in this than talk. At the same time certain conditions must be recognized that do not encourage the expectation of a rapid return to a normal market.

For instance, three mills are shutting down because of scarcity of coal, wood or cars; while in Canada, whence the American mills get 1,000,000 cords of pulpwood a year, the report is that the cut of pulpwood this year will not be 75 per cent of last year's cut.

A material factor in keeping up the newsprint famine is the lack of cars for the shipment of both the raw material and fuel to the mills and the paper to the consumers; while even where cars are obtainable freight blockades on the roads renders the supply of paper that the mills do ship precarious. The Courier-Journal, for example, has but recently received two shipments of paper made as long ago as the middle of December, while all the shipments made in January are still on the road somewhere between Louisville and the mills.

It is not strange that under the circumstances newspapers are being forced to suspend publication, and that in order to conserve the supply of newsprint that is available the imperative policy being enforced by the newspapers generally is to "cut everything to the bone."—Courier-Journal.

To filter the blood is the kidneys' duty. When they fail to do this the kidneys are weak.

Backache and other kidney ills may follow. Help the kidneys to do their work. Use Doan's Kidney Pills—the tested kidney remedy.

Paris people endorse their worth. Mrs. John Martin, 1439 High street, Paris, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills with very good results and I can tell from the help they were to me that they would be beneficial in other cases of kidney trouble. I had a dead, dull ache across the small of my back and my kidneys were irregular in action. What Can You Do to Cut Down the Cost of Living?

"Start in with baking at home. It's easy to make good bread—better than you can buy—and you'll be surprised how much you can save."

"What you save on the cost of the bread is only half the story. The better your bread, the more your family will eat, and, in eating more bread they will naturally eat less of other more expensive foods."

"There is twice as much food value in a pound of flour as in a pound of meat—and the meat will cost you probably five times as much."

"All you need is a good recipe and a good flour—these two things are essential."

"One of the best flours that I know—one that I have used in my own baking for years, is made in Ohio—right in the Miami Valley where the rich limestone soil produces a soft winter wheat of peculiarly superior quality."

CHARMING ADA MEADE SAFFRANS TO BE MARRIED

With a picture of charming "Ada Meade," a Pittsburg paper has an interesting note of her reported engagement to be married. "Ada Meade" is now in Cincinnati with the "Katinka" Company playing a return week there, and with her mother, Mrs. Daniel Saffrans, is at the Sinton Hotel.

The headlines of the note say "Actress wins heart of Pittsburg man." "Fair Ada Meade to wed steel manufacturer when season closes." The item reads:

When Ada Meade appeared in Pittsburg in "Katinka" during the week of November 6 she did more than win the favor of her audiences—she captured the heart of a Pittsburg man. The affair was not one-sided, for it is said that at the end of the season the girl will go to the altar to the tune of the wedding march.

Her husband-to-be is an official in a local steel corporation and the announcement that he is to marry Miss Meade is no surprise to those who were guests at the dinners which he gave in her honor.

PARIS HIGH WINS BOTH GAMES OF DOUBLE-HEADER

The boys' and girls' basketball teams of the Clark County High School came to grief at the Y. M. C. A. in this city Friday night, when they ran afoul of the boys' and girls' teams of the Paris High School in a struggle on the floor of the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium. "The Invincibles," (the girls' team) piled up a score of 36 to the Winchester girls' 15, while the P. H. S. boys' team downed their opponents from the capital of Clark by a score of 34 to 19.

There was a large crowd in attendance at the games, which were pronounced by many to have been the best ever witnessed on the Y. M. C. A. floors. It was full of vim and go from first to last, and was never over until the final count. On next Thursday night at the Y. M. C. A. the boys' team will play the team from the Richmond High School. This, too, will be a very interesting game, as the Richmond boys are said to be adepts in the game.

The girls' team, recognized as one of the best in the State, met and defeated the Margaret College team at Versailles last week by a score of 51 to 18. If any team in Central Kentucky gets by this bevy of basketball tossers, it will be because of some inexcusably bad playing on the part of the local team.

The Winchester boys' team attributed their defeat to the sudden illness which Capt. Osborne, of their team suffered just before the game started. He was taken suddenly ill on the floor and had to be taken from the gymnasium to a nearby physician's office, where he was given medical attention. The Clark county teams were accompanied to Paris by Prof. Robt. Berryman, Miss Mary Wood and Prof. R. R. Murphy, of Winchester, as chaperones.

PARIS BOWLING LEAGUE.

That the bowling game in Paris is losing none of its interest was amply evidenced by the attendance at the game between the Curtis Henry & Co. and the Bourbon Laundry Thursday night. This, too, in spite of other attractions.

The Henry team put it over their opponents to the extent of 132 pins in a nicely bowled game, some high averages being made. For the victors, Faulkner carried off both first and second honors by bowling 197 in the third game and 193 in the first, giving him an average of 173. Lytle bowled a consistent game, being very close behind Faulkner, having 185 and 180 as his best scores. The other members of the team bowled from 123 up to 166. For the Laundry team Neal scored high with 175, while Jackson came second with 169. Tom Funk annexed the highest average for his team, getting 158 1-3. The score follows:

Plans are being made for enlarging and remodeling the Fordham Alleys for next season. Jackson & Denton say they propose to have alleys second to none in the State. The League will also be increased by the addition of three new teams, one of them made up of L. & N. men, another of retail clerks and another a team from the county.

LEXINGTON VS. PARIS.

The Paris team met defeat at the hands of the Lexington team in a game played at the Adams Alleys in Lexington, Friday night, by a majority of 217 pins. Some unusually high scores were made, running close around the 200 mark in several frames. For Lexington, Adams rolled 222, 209, 193, Linney bowled 205, 203 and 190, while the lowest was 146. Duncan made the highest score for Paris and the highest in the three games, bowling 226 in the first game. Funk was second with 200 in the second game. B-4 FIRE Insure with W.O. HINTON & SON, AGTS

TWO ALARMS SUNDAY.

The peace and quiet of Sunday was disturbed for the Paris fire department by two alarms of fire. The first was caused by a small blaze on the roof of a cottage on Seventh street, occupied by Mr. Mann, an alarm being turned in from Box 21. The second alarm came about 2:30 Sunday afternoon from Box 34, caused by a pile of rubbish near the Standard Oil Co.'s tanks near the L. & N. railroad catching fire. Both fires were extinguished in short order by the department. Loss trifling.

PARIS FIRM BUYS HEMP CROP AT HIGHEST FIGURES.

A deal which has been pending for several days between representatives of the firm of E. F. Spears & Sons, of Paris, and a committee composed of Messrs. Jos. S. Lindsay, R. D. Hunter and W. H. Hodgkin, representing the hemp growers of Clark county, was closed Friday night, when the Paris firm became owners of the remaining one-half million pounds of Clark county hemp at the record price of $14.10. This is said to be the highest price to be paid for hemp since the days of the Civil War.

The Paris firm recently purchased one-half of the Clark county hemp crop, which is approximately 1,000,000 pounds at $13.75 per hundred pounds, taking an option on that remaining in the hands of the growers, with the privilege of exercising the option on or before March 1. The first deal which they made with the Clark county growers aggregated the sum of $137,500, while that which was consummated Friday night will reach a total of $141,000, making a total of $277,500, realized from about two-thirds of the total acreage of hemp raised in Clark county during the past year.

No limit has been placed on the time for the delivery of the hemp for which the recent deal was made. The hemp was sold with the understanding that the crop will be delivered at Winchester at points specified by the growers. Mr. Marion Leach, of Paris, representing E. F. Spears & Sons, will have charge of the Winchester deliveries, which, as soon as put in shape, will be shipped to a point in Massachusetts, where it will be put through the milling process.

Anyone who keeps on predicting a cold wave in the winter time will undoubtedly have his prediction come true.

HEMP SEED STILL COMMANDING HIGH PRICE.

Hemp seed, which last year commanded the highest price in almost half a century, has taken another record jump, according to the hemp seed dealers in this city, who have been besieged with orders for the spring planting. Another shortage of the seed and the same condition which confronted the grower last season which had the effect of reducing the acreage which under other conditions would have been much larger, is now faced.

The hemp seed market opened this season at $3.50 per bushel and the demand has been so great that during the past several weeks the price has jumped from that figure to $12.50 per bushel. So numerous are the orders that the local dealers say that they will be unable to fill them owing to the extreme scarcity and scores who have contemplated planting hemp during the coming season will most likely meet with disappointment, as only a few are to be had at the high figure quoted.

HEED THIS NOTICE.

Within the next few weeks there will be a general trading of places among a large number of tenants and farmers in this county, who will be moving from place to place. To be sure of getting THE NEWS, our subscribers should drop us a postal card to-day, telling us when and where they will move, and giving both their old and new address. We will then see that your address is changed at the right time.

WEATHER FORECAST FOR WEEK

The weather forecast for the week beginning Sunday, Feb. 25, is as follows:

For Ohio Valley and Tennessee, Rain probably Monday and Tuesday, and about Friday; other days probably fair. Moderate temperatures first part, followed by considerably colder about Wednesday and warmer latter part of week.

DO YOU KNOW?

Do you know that we have more goods than any grocery in Paris, and are taking care of our trade better and cheaper?

WILL PROBATED.

The will of Mr. Robert L. Thomas, formerly of Paris, who died at his home in Lexington, several days ago, was admitted to probate in the Fayette County Court. The instrument devises all his estate, real, personal and otherwise, to his wife, Mrs. Irma Trent Thomas. Mrs. Thomas, who was named as executor, qualified by furnishing bond.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE.

It does pay to advertise! It's a proposition that none in this enlightened age can deny. In the last issue of THE NEWS, Mrs. C. M. Clay advertised for a man and wife to take care of premises and to do gardening etc. Monday a letter came in the morning mail from Mrs. Clay to the effect that THE NEWS' ad had brought in twelve replies.

This shows how widely THE NEWS is read in this territory. If you want to get results, advertise in THE NEWS.

MADE TO YOUR IDEAS.

Whatever your idea of a suit is, we'll build it for you, just to your specifications, and we'll make it right, too. Early choosing is advantageous.

BURGULARIOUS VISITATION.

Thieves effected an entrance into the restaurant of Mr. Adam B. Davis, on Tenth street, which has been closed for some time. They cut out the heavy wire screen on a rear window and threw the window catch. A quantity of cigars, chewing tobacco and canned goods was taken. The enterprising thieves had a poor estimate of the establishment's business methods, as in their search for money they broke open a new cash register that had been left unlocked, and which, of course, contained no money. They left no clue.

POULTRY NETTING.

We have a large line of poultry netting—all sizes and widths from one to six foot. Our prices are always a little lower than the other fellows. The quality is the same high grade that we always pride ourselves with handling. See us if you want anything in this line, and will save you money.

VALUABLE DOG POISONED.

Some fiend in human form administered a dose of poison to a valuable Irish terrier belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Swift Champ last week. The dog was a very valuable one, having come from one of the best-known kennels in Philadelphia. He had been missing for a day, and a close search being made for him he was found dead in the cellar from the effects of poison, which had presumably been thrown in the yard.

There is no word in the English language fit to express a proper conception of the meanness of anyone who would deliberately poison a valuable dog. It is a good riddance for a worthless cur, but some good dogs are better than some mean humans.

GERMANS TO LOSE COLONIES

LONDON, Feb. 26.—The deathknell to Germany's colonial possessions has been sounded, so far as the Entente Allies can effect that result, by the almost simultaneous announcement of the British Minister of Colonies, Mr. Long; the Japanese Minister of Foreign Affairs, Mr. Motono, and the Prime Minister of New Zealand, Mr. Massey, who voiced the view of Australia as well as New Zealand. Together these statements declare there will be no return to Germany of her colonies in Africa, Asia or the Pacific. This attitude is not only held by Japan and the British colonies chiefly concerned, but it has the backing of British and French Governments, which have the largest interests in colonial Africa and Asia.

SLEEPING MUST BE HIS FAVORITE EXERCISE.

HALIFAX, N. S., Feb. 26.—One of the German Embassy Secretaries returning to Germany with former Ambassador von Bernstorff on the steamship Frederick VIII., which is being examined here by British authorities on her voyage from New York to Copenhagen, is reported to have 200 suits of pajamas in his possession.

In the baggage of nearly 211 other members of the party, cotton goods, known to be scarce in Germany, are plentiful, the Customs Inspectors have discovered. In view of the close association between cotton and explosives it is understood that the examiners will take some of the excess clothing from the Germans and make an allowance for it.

It is learned also that the Germans are well supplied with gold. As this is contraband it is believed it will be exchanged into some form of currency less useful to Germany.

The care with which the Frederick VIII's passengers are being watched is shown by the fact that the customs guards are kept on the ship so as to avoid any possibility of messages being taken ashore. It was learned Thursday that the customs men themselves are kept under surveillance by Secret Service Agents and are forbidden to converse with passengers.

YES! LIFT A CORN OFF WITHOUT PAIN!

Cincinnati Authority Tells How to Dry Up a Corn or Callous So it Lifts Off With Fingers.

You corn-pestered men and women need suffer no longer. Wear the shoes that nearly killed you before, says this Cincinnati authority, because a few drops of Freezone applied directly on the tender, aching corn or callous, stops soreness at once and soon the corn or hardened callous loosens so it can be lifted off, root and all, without pain.

A small bottle of Freezone cost very little at any drug store, but will positively take off every hard or soft corn or callous. This should be tried, as it is inexpensive and is said not to irritate the surrounding skin.

If your druggist hasn't any Freezone, tell him to get a small bottle for you from his wholesale drug house. It is fine stuff and acts like a charm every time.

A HUMAN SEARCHLIGHT.

The up-to-date Cincinnati fireman is going to be an illuminating person, casting light into all the dark places. The fire department has invested in a number of high-power searchlights, made to be strapped to the fireman's backs. The device is intended for use in night work, and in places where the smoke is dense. It takes a husky firefighter to bear one of the new searchlights and still do much fire-fighting, for the machine weighs thirty pounds in all; but it throws a 3,000 candle-power beam, and will burn for five hours steadily. The battery is carried on the back, and the headlight shoots forward over the fireman's helmet.

PUTS NEW LIFE INTO HIS WORK

Fur Dealer Tells How Tanlac Brought Back Ambition.

CAN'T TIRE HIM OUT NOW

J. M. Phillips, a fur dealer, widely-known around Monticello, Ky., where he has lived for years, can't say enough for Tanlac.

He says he's a living example of what Tanlac will do for a man.

"Before taking Tanlac," Mr. Phillips said, "I was so run down in health that I couldn't do my work as it should have been done. That tired, droopy feeling stayed with me all day long and I didn't have a bit of ambition. I had headaches nearly all the time. They made life miserable and work hard for me. They kept me awake at nights. I lost my appetite.

"Most any kind of food, even eggs, made me feel bad, because I couldn't digest what little I did eat. I got so weak it was all I could do to stand on my feet. I lost a lot of weight.

"Then a friend told me about Tanlac. It did the work. Since taking it, I have got my appetite back, and can eat anything I want. I have gained in weight and am not nervous. I sleep fine nights. I owe all this to Tanlac and urge others to try it if they feel all-in, run-down and just half-sick."

If you don't feel right get Tanlac today. Delay in health matters is dangerous.

Tanlac, the master medicine and reconstructive tonic, is sold exclusively in PARIS by Varden & Son. Other exclusive agents in nearby towns are as follows:

HUTCHISON Snell & Wood; MILLERSBURG, W. G. Wadell; ELIZABETH, Oscar Smith; CARLISLE, Tureman & Son; GEORGETOWN, J. H. Arnold; WINCHESTER, Duty Drug Company; AUSTERLITZ, B. S. Parrish.

MUST HUNT DOWN THE SUBMARINES.

LONDON, February 26.—Premier Lloyd George said in a speech in the House of Commons that the success of the Allied cause depended on the ability to solve the tonnage shortage, which was now affecting the ordinary needs of the nation and military exigencies. The situation, he declared, called for the gravest measures.

The Premier said there was no sure way to victory without hunting the submarines from the deep.

THE BEST RECOMMENDATION.

The strongest recommendation any article may receive is a favorable word from the user. It is the recommendations of those who have used it that makes Chamberlain's Cough Remedy so popular. Silly Talk About "Luck."
One of the many ways in which the individual unwisely eclipses himself, is in his worship of the fetish of luck. He feels that all others are lucky and that whatever he attempts, fails. He does not realize the untiring energy, the unremitting concentration, the heroic courage, the sublime patience that is the secret of some men's success. Their "luck" was that they had prepared themselves to be equal to their opportunity when it came and were awake to recognize it and receive it.—William George Jordan.

FOR A BILIOUS ATTACK

When you have a severe headache, accompanied by a coated tongue, nothing of food, constipation, torpid liver, vomiting of partly digested food and then bile, you may know that you have a severe bilious attack. While you may be quite sick there is much consolation in knowing that relief may be had by taking three of Chamberlain's Tablets. They are prompt and effectual. Obtainable everywhere.

UGH! ACID STOMACH, SOURNESS, HEARTBURN, GAS OR INDIGESTION.

The Moment "Pape's Diapepsin" Reaches the Stomach All Distress Goes.

Do some foods you eat hit back—taste good, but work badly; ferment into acids and cause a sick, sour, gassy stomach? Now, Mr. and Mrs. Dyspeptic, jot this down: Pape's Diapepsin helps neutralize the excessive acids in the stomach so your food won't sour and upset you. There never was anything so safely quick, so certainly effective. No difference how badly your stomach is upset you usually get happy relief in five minutes, but what pleases you most is that it helps to regulate your stomach so you can eat your favorite foods without fear.

Most remedies give you relief sometimes—they are slow, but not sure. "Pape's Diapepsin" is positive in neutralizing the acidity, so the misery won't come back very quickly.

You feel different as soon as Pape's Diapepsin comes in contact with the stomach—distress just vanishes—your stomach gets sweet, no gases, no belching, no eructations of undigested food, your head clears and you feel fine.

Go now, make the best investment you ever made, by getting a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin from any drug store. You realize in five minutes how needless it is to suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia, or any stomach disorder, due to acid fermentation. (adv)

UP THE LADDER OF SUCCESS

Whatever Job You Have, Consider That It Is the Best Job in the World.

"In climbing the ladder of success what have you learned that you could pass on as aid to other struggling young men?" B. C. Forbes of Leslie's Weekly asked H. P. Davison of J. P. Morgan & Co. "Did you conceive any shining goal and bend everything to getting there?"

"No," he replied emphatically. "Whatever job I had was to me always the very best job in the world and I tried to fill it. I made no elaborate plans for the future. If I had any system in my labor it was first to do my own work; second, to teach the fellow below me how to take my place; third, to learn how to fill the position ahead of me.

"Boys and young men should not imagine that their work is so unimportant that nobody takes note of how they do it. It does not take long to find out whether a boy is on his toes watching how he can best be of help in a situation or whether he merely sits down and waits to be told what to do. The simple virtues of willingness, readiness, alertness and courtesy will carry a boy further than mere smartness.

"Perhaps it will not be out of place for me to describe an incident which may carry a lesson for the young men you are anxious to help. One day when I was tending a customer offered me a very fine gold pen. I went right into the office and asked if this man had any loan from the bank. I explained that he had asked me to accept the gift. The bank promptly acted and it was not long before the fellow was in bankruptcy. The simple course I took saved the bank a good deal of money."

HORSE WILL GET A PENSION

"Daisy" Has Been the Heroine of More Than a Hundred Thrilling Shipwrecks.

Daisy, the heroine of more than one hundred thrilling shipwrecks in the past 21 years, has been added to the list of pensioned government employees. Daisy is the handsome dapple gray mare—the pride of the United States coast guard station at Peaked Hill Bars, Provincetown, on the tip end of Cape Cod.

Since November 15, 1895, when Daisy, as a chubby, playful colt, entered the service of Uncle Sam, she has faithfully performed those duties incumbent on her. According to the seven men who comprise the crew at the Peaked Hill Bars station, Daisy has been the real thing in successfully executing many brilliant rescues. Not only has she furnished the motive power in all kinds of storms over ice-bound shores of Cape Cod for the land journey of the lifeboat, but she has also aided the men in bringing safely to shore hundreds of half-frozen sailors in the breeches buoy.

Sectional Avoirdupois.

The average weight of men south of the Mason and Dixon line is from four to six pounds lighter than the average weight of men north of it, says United States marine recruiting officers operating there, in a report received at marine headquarters. These recruiting officers have asked that the minimum weight for recruits in the South be reduced from 124 to 120 pounds, stripped.

"The large raw-boned southerner" is seldom seen, the recruiting officers aver, and, while the men of the South are as sound and fit as the men of any other section, they are usually small-boned and light in weight. The officers point out in their recommendation that some of the best "hikers" and fighters in the marine corps are the lean, wiry men from the south-land.

How Aviator Can Learn.

It is not necessary for the amateur aviator to have an aeroplane at his disposal continually. A machine has been invented which will enable him to learn the principles of aviation without ascending six feet from terra firma. The machine consists of two long steel arms which intersect each other at right angles. They are mounted upon a concrete pyramid at the intersection, so that they balance when at rest. The aviator's seat is over the intersection and the machine moves with the wind or by means of weights that can be shifted, giving the driver the same effort to maintain his equilibrium as if he were high in the air.

Again, "One, Two, Three."

Some comfort for the elderly and equal confusion of the young is found in the dictum of the masters that the violent dance forms of recent date are to be discarded for the season now at hand. The waltz of old is coming back, and the three-four time of days gone by again will be heard where the ear is now outraged by the syncopated abominations to the "ragtime" of which swings, dips, whirls and other gymnastics of the "modern" dance are performed. Johann Strauss will reign again where Irving Berlin last year held sway. On with the dance!—Omaha Bee.

When Half the Babies Die.

The danger of bottle-feeding for very young babies is seen in some figures presented by Dr. Godfrey H. Pisk of New York before the New York Academy of Medicine. These show that during the first eleven weeks of 1916, 50 per cent of the deaths occurred in the first month of life; 85 per cent of infantile deaths are among those artificially fed.

—Mrs. Tandy Hughes, of Lexington, opened a dancing class at the M. M. I. Monday afternoon. Quite a number of the cadets and teachers are taking advantage of her instruction. The course will consist of ten lessons, closing some time the early part of May with a matinee dance.

—Rev. R. S. Saunders, of Thomasville, Ga., visited friends here from Saturday until Monday, and preached at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning and evening. Rev. Saunders was pastor of the Presbyterian church here for five years, and his many friends were glad to see him. He preached to two large audiences on Sunday.

—The Young Men's Dancing Club will give a dance at the Opera House this evening, beginning at 9 p. m. A saxophone trio will furnish the music. The following is a partial list of visitors who have already arrived: Miss Mary Ross, Paris, with Miss Margaret Allen; Misses Elizabeth Peed, of Maysville, and Louise McAllister, of Lexington, with Mrs. A. S. Best; Misses Angie Young Jackson and Elizabeth Jackson, of Owensville, with Mrs. Carrie Potts; Misses Farris, Fielding and Ratcliff, of Sharpshurg, with Mrs. James Ralls; Miss Elizabeth Walker, of Lexington, with Miss Louise Myall.

—On Saturday afternoon, Cadet Hamilton, assisted by some of his fellow cadets, gave a matinee dance at the M. M. I. Drill Hall. It was one of the most pleasant social affairs of the season. The building was decorated in military style. Frappe was served during the entire time. The music was furnished by a Lexington orchestra. The following is a partial list of out-of-town guests present at the reception and dance: Misses Mary Kenney Webber, Catherine Wilson, Elizabeth Crutcher, Cordie Stevenson; Mesdames (Kate T. Wilson, Chas. Webber; Mr. Dan Peed, Mr. Julian Rogers, of Paris; Miss Pollie Mullins, Lena Mae Jones, Mr. Alvin Bon, of Winchester; James Bannister, Lewis Hamilton, Misses Mabel Sinclair, Christine Ward, of Georgetown; Mr. Joe Harris, of Carlisle; Misses Margaret Cook, Charlie Elmore, of Lancaster; Misses Katherine Tucker, Lola Campbell, Mr. Bryan McMurtry, of Lexington; Miss Mary Jacoby, of Clintonville; Mr. Nathan Young, Hissel Asbury, of Carlisle; Cecil Brown and Owen Hendron, of Lancaster; Mr. Harmon Turner and Miss Juliet Turner, of Paris; Miss Juliet Varden, Miss Lulu Tilly, of Lexington; Mrs. H. B. Mantel, Miss Margaret Mantel and Elizabeth Hays, of Elizabethtown; Helen Yantis, of Lexington; Kelly Stone, of Winchester; Miss Fanny Platt, Mrs. Thomas Platt, of Lexington.

—The twenty-fourth annual Junior Reception of the M. M. I. was held Friday evening from 8 to 11 in the main building. About 400 invitations were sent out, most of them responded to. There were twenty cadets with Col. Best at their head, in the receiving line in the library. On entering the front door the guests were greeted by soft strains of music from the orchestra, with O. C. Rankin as harpist, stationed in the rear of the front hall. The color scheme was red and white. The entire lower floor of the main building was decorated in military style and in harmony with the colonial times of Washington. In the dining-room cut flowers were very much in evidence on all the tables. This room in its artistic decorations of flowers, flags, hatchets, cherries and cherry trees was far more artistic in its arrangement than any ever given at the M. M. I. In blending the decorations Mrs. Best wove into them Washington, Lincoln and Wilson. It was a decidedly unique departure, and the situation was taken in at a glance by all present. The refreshment consisted of vanilla cream, cherry ice, individual cakes with a miniature flag in the center, which was afterwards used as a souvenir, while candied cherries in stems were passed. Miniature hatchets and the eagle flag of the day were very much in evidence. Notwithstanding the inclement weather, a good time was enjoyed by all present. Mrs. Best was at her best and had a pleasant smile for everybody, giving to each a glad hand, which made them feel welcome, and very much at home.

SMITH FARM SOLD.

The real estate firm of Harris & Speakes, of Paris, sold last week the farm of Mr. Frank G. Smith, located on the Rattles Mills pike, about two miles from Paris, to Mr. Sidney G. Sloan, of Magoffin county. The farm contains sixteen and one-half acres of well-improved land. The purchase price was $4,000. Mr. Sloan will move to the farm about the first of the month.

DEATHS.

STAGG.

Mrs. Kate Stagg, widow of the late Mr. Abram C. Stagg, of Bourbon county, died at her home in Mercer county, where she had moved after the death of her husband about one year ago. She is survived by one granddaughter, Mrs. R. B. Parks, of Lexington.

KELLER.

The funeral of Miss Mattie Keller, who died Thursday at the home of her brother, Mr. Isaac Keller, near Kiser-ton, was held at the Keller residence at eleven o'clock Saturday morning with services conducted by Rev. Dr. O. R. Mangum, of the Paris Baptist church. The burial followed in the Kiser burying ground at Kiser-ton. The pall-bearers were, Messrs. Wallace Kiser, Kenney Kiser, Stoner Keller, Miller Kiser, Ernest Kiser and Ed. Keller.

FICKLIN.

Major Horatio Ficklin, aged sixty-five, one of the best-known men in Maysville, died at his home in that city Friday night, after a short illness of pneumonia. Maj. Ficklin was one of the originators of the Uniform Rank of the Knights of Pythias, an organization which he lived to see grow into one of the greatest fraternal orders in the State. He was a director in the State National Bank of Maysville, a large property owner and was for a number of years Warf-master at Maysville. He was a cousin of former Lieutenant Governor Wm. H. Cox. He is survived by two sons, Maj. Ficklin died in the room where he was born sixty-five years ago.

INGELS.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Davis Ingels, aged eighty-eight, who died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. Cheek, in Danville, Thursday evening, after a long illness, was held in Paris, Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The body was brought to Paris, Friday afternoon, and was taken to the home of her niece, Mrs. R. J. Neely, on Duncan avenue, where services were conducted by Rev. J. Q. A. McDowell, pastor of the Danville Presbyterian church. The burial followed on the family lot in the Paris Cemetery. The pall-bearers were her nephews, Messrs. Owen I. Davis, Rudolph Davis, Walter Davis, Wallace W. Mitchell, Charles B. Mitchell and George M. Davis.

Mrs. Ingels was a native of Paris, a sister of Mrs. George W. Davis, of Paris. She had been a resident of Paris for over seventy-five years, having, with her husband, the late Mr. James D. Ingels, resided in the old Ingels home on South Main street, now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Martin Doyle. She was a daughter of the late George M. Davis, one of the pioneer residents of Paris, who for many years was in business in this city. Of the family of six children, Mr. George W. Davis is the sole survivor. Mrs. Ingels was a lifelong member of the Paris Presbyterian church, having become a member when very young. She retained her membership there until her son-in-law, Rev. Frank J. Cheek, moved to Louisville, and then to Danville, where she accompanied him and his family. Mrs. Ingels was one of the most highly-respected and esteemed women of Paris, and had a host of friends and acquaintances in Paris and in the county who heard of her death with genuine sorrow. She had been in failing health for several years and for the past few weeks had been confined to her room. Her death was due to the infirmities of age.

HEMP MEN BUSY.

About the busiest people on the farm at this season of the year are the hemp breakers, and nearly every day several wagonloads of hemp can be seen on the streets, en route to the warehouses.

The tobacco men are also very busy and there is enough tobacco yet in the county to furnish material for a number of good sales. Stripping of the weed is practically over, and the smoke of burning beds will soon be seen if the weather will permit. A great deal of fall plowing has been done, which will cause a rush during the next two months.

At present there are indications that there will be an increased average of both tobacco and hemp for the coming season, with about an average crop of corn and other crops. Wheat is not looking very well, especially that which was planted late, and it is the opinion of some farmers that it has been hurt by the severe freezes and thaws.

MATRIMONIAL.

ADAMS-MAYBRIER.

—Mr. George M. Maybrier, and Miss Lucinda Adams, both of the Centerville vicinity, were married Saturday at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. W. O. Sadler, on Houston avenue.

WEBBER-CARR.

—A marriage license was issued Saturday from the office of County Clerk Pearce Paton, to Mr. Robert Webber and Miss Nannie Carr, both of Bourbon county.

LOCAL COLOR STORIES
BY LOCAL RACONTEURS

Just as "Full many a gem of purest ray serene the dark unfathom'd caves of ocean bear," so there is many a gem in the way of a good story lurking around Paris, that has never found its way into the prints. Paris has several Chauncey Depews, who could, on even grounds, discount that noted after-dinner story teller. There is plenty of material here for local color stories, and most of it goes to waste for want of a chronicler. Occasionally a coterie of these kindred spirits get together, and then some good stories are uncoined.

A few nights ago there was an assembly of this character at one of the Paris hotels, composed of two newspaper men, one attorney, one lawyer who had never been called Judge, and a rounder who was just a plain citizen, but a good story-teller, and here's what ensued, when one of the newspaper men told this one:

"Several years ago in Paris, when some of you fellows were living some where else, there were here two lively stable proprietors, whose places of business were situated alongside of each other on a certain busy street in the town. They were rivals in a business way and also for the heart and hand of a fair belle of Paris. They had been using the newspapers, the old Paris True Kentuckian being then the leading paper here, pretty freely in their campaign. One of them had an advertisement in the Kentuckian and also had a long strip of cardboard printed with the words, 'Our Horse: Need No Whip To Make Them Go,' which he placed in a conspicuous place in the window of his office. This bit of sarcasm naturally caused some amusement at the expense of the proprietor of the rival stable, but in a short time he had neatly turned the trick by inserting an advertisement in the paper, and placing a sign in his window, which read: 'That's true what that fellow says, because the wind blows his thin old nags along.'"

The lawyer who had never been a Judge brought out this one as his contribution to the fund:

"Some weeks ago the wife of a certain member of the Bourbon county bar issued a ukase to her cook, who had acquired the habit of absentsmiling herself at very important times, and the result was the director of the culinary department quit and left the service. Efforts to replace the kitchen lady left the lady of the house thrown on her own resources, so she rolled up her sleeves and for about a week provided my legal friend with such meals as he had not had since the days when they had no such thing as a cook. My friend's delight was so great that he immediately provided his wife with a beautiful new fur cloak that she had coveted for some time. Quite naturally the incident became known among their social acquaintances, and a spirit of envious emulation soon developed in certain quarters. It was in this mood that one of the ladies recited the story to her husband: 'What do I get, dear, if I do the cooking for a week?' 'Well,' her husband said, 'at the end of a week, dear I rather think you'd be ready for one of those long black crepe veils.'"

Then the "rounder," who was just a plain spoken citizen, spoke up thusly: 'Well, I will have to tell about a good friend of mine who came to Paris recently from a neighboring city on a business errand. He had numerous purchases to make for his wife before returning home. After he had disposed of his crop of tobacco at the Bourbon Tobacco Warehouse he began his shopping expedition and along toward the shank of the evening he happened to recall another article his wife had told him to purchase and which he had failed to jot down on his memorandum book. With all of his pockets full of small packages and almost an armful of others, he stepped into The Fair. One of the clerks came up and politely asked him what he desired to purchase. He informed the clerk that his wife had told him to get some bands to put on the legs of chickens, and was perfectly horrified when the clerk began to show him a choice assortment of garters. But he got 'em, anyway.'"

It was the second newspaper man's chance, and he came through with this: "Many years ago when Judge William Purnell was in the County Judge's office a case was brought before him where a man was charged with beating his wife. The case went through the usual process, and was given to the jury. After being out some time they solemnly filed in. Judge Purnell asked them: 'Gentlemen of the jury, are you agreed upon your verdict?' The foreman replied, 'We are.' 'Do you find the prisoner guilty or not guilty?' asked Judge Purnell. 'We do.' 'You do? What?' Judge Purnell spoke up. 'We find the prisoner guilty or not guilty,' answered the foreman. 'But, gentlemen,' said the Judge, 'you cannot return a verdict like that.' 'Well, I don't know,' responded the foreman. 'You see six of us found him guilty and six of us have found him not guilty and we agreed to let it go at that.' He got another trial and was sent up for sixty days."

"Well," said the attorney, who had all along been an attentive listener, "I'll have to chip in this one, and close the session. I had a case in the Police Court several years ago, where I was defending a man charged with drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

The prisoner was an old offender, yet Judge Chas. Daugherty Webb, who was filling the office at the time, felt that he might want some excuse in the record. After hearing the testimony and my argument in behalf of my client, Judge Webb said, 'I'll tell you I am sorry, but I'll have to make it thirty days in jail. What have you to say to that?' The fellow, who was one of the best-natured men in Paris, and at all times, drunk or sober, witty, looked at Judge Webb, and as Chief of Police James Mernaugh led him down the aisle, he turned around and said, 'Nothing much, but I think you are d-d liberal with my spare time.'"
